MADAME LOUISE SCOTT, one of North Jersey's most successful business women who has built a sizeable empire of business enterprises in the city of Newark. The saga of her meteoric rise over a brief period to economic security and ability to help others is written in self-denials, sacrifices, hard work and determination.

Born in Florence, S. C., of God fearing, Christian parents, Eliza and George Scott, Louise came to Newark at an early age to seek her fortune, obtaining domestic work. In 1936, two years after her arrival, she had enrolled herself in Apex School of Beauty Culture. In 1938, immediately upon graduating she had set up her own beauty shoppe. In 1946 at the close of World War II, aware of the great need for qualified beauticians, as well as the significant economic values she set up SCOTT'S SCHOOL OF BEAUTY CULTURE, one of the first schools of its kind to be accepted and approved by the Veterans Administration for training young people under the G. I. Bill of Rights in North Jersey area.

With a fast growing school, and a lucrative beauty shoppe practice, she looked about for new fields to conquer and out of the multitude of ideas racing through her mind, she estab-lished HOTEL SCOTT, formerly an apartment house of 27 families within a stone's throw of bustling downtown area. Renovations and modernization turned this building into a beautiful home-like atmosphere comprising 50 or more rooms, with all modern equipment and conveniences, including dining room services, catering to weddings, banquets, private parties. Her latest acquisition, within walking distance of this building, is now ANNEX TO HOTEL SCOTT, even more beautifully furnished.

However, remaining true to her "first love" beauty culture, she has also established a chain of beauty shoppes throughout the city, wherein employment is given to graduating students, as well as qualified personnel. Brothers and sisters, as well as nephews and nieces scattered throughout the country have been recipients of her beneficence, having been able to study at her school, and now own and operate their own beauty shoppes.

OCTOBER 2, 1957, Clergymen, celebrities, men and women in all walks of life join the Committee of 100 citizens, at Terrace Ballroom, Newark, to salute Louise Scott in Testimonial of her "Will to Achieve, and by achieving, help others."

The Challenge of Change

REVEREND MARY FARRAR REVEREND ALBERTA HINES WEST WOMEN IN THE MINISTRY

Belleville, N. J. is justly proud of Rev. Mary Farrar, pastor of Little Zion U.A.M.E. Church. Small wonder when the achievements of the personable minister are evaluated. Assuming the pastorate in 1950, Rev. Farrar was confronted with many problems, among them physical deterioration of the edifice and dwindling membership.

This lady of the cloth of refined and pleasant demeanor, possessing a sincere warm personality, met the challenge with head-on perseverance. Today, Little Zion is a model religious edifice, spic and span inside and out, modern heating system, splendid organ and stained glass windows—evidence of faith of the community and her growing church membership.

the community and her growing church membership.

She has served the U.A.M.E. Conference diligently, with fruitful periods in the missionary and evangelistic fields, followed by pastorates at Ramsey Memorial UAME, New York City, Holy Trinity UAME, Paterson, all proving grounds for her present post.

Spartan devotion to duty and active participation in The Council of Churches, The Belleville Ministerial Alliance, keep the days of this devout Christian leader very full. She resides in Montclair, and is mother of talented young Patricia Farrar.

Alberta, unknowingly found her place in the sun, while still a teenager, working in the Master's Vineyard, as she so aptly termed it. In her native town, Savannah, Ga., where her parents had brought her from Riceboro, Va., at an early age, she taught Sunday School, went about helping the sick, and telling them of Christ the Healer.

When she reached maturity she came to Newark, N. J., and immediately joined Metropolitan Baptist Church, continuing her aid to her fellowmen, particularly helpful in the Floral Circle.

A restlessness paced her every movement and an inner voice which she could not still called her to greater service. It was then she studied the tenets of the Church of God in Christ. Later affiliating herself with that denomination.

In the still small watches of the night when angels speak to men, she became aware of the inner urge to—"go into highway and hedges and compel men to come unto Christ." It was then she answered the call to greater service, becoming ordained into the ministry and later appointed pastor of Bethel House of Prayer for All People, Newark.

CONVENTION CALL

REV. JOHN D. RENFRO (far rt.) pastor Mt. Sinai Baptist Church, and congregation, were host to 44th annual session North Jersey District Baptist Convention in July. Convention theme "The Social Implications of the Christian Gospel." The session was hailed as the most effective in the history of the Association. Also, chairman of N. J. Transportation Committee for National Baptist Convention, Inc., Rev. Renfro, September 1st escorted some 75 persons to the Annual session in Louisville, Ky.

NATIONAL

DECEASED MEMBER

Book readers were saddened by news of the passing of Kenneth Roberts, perhaps the greatest conte mporary American historical novelist. No one did more to recreate the highlights of American history, especially in the New England Scene, than Roberts, in such books as "Olive r Wiswell", "Rabble In Arms", "Arundell."

Of equal interest was "Northwest Passage", which combined history with adventure in one of the most colorful stories in the annals of literature. Of valuable human relation significance was "Lydia Bailey" which unfolded on a broad panoramic canvas the most memorable period of Haitian history.

CIVIL RIGHTS TRAIL

The successful attempt to circum navigate the Supreme Court's desegregation edict by those opposed to the proposed Civil Rights legislation, presents the ultimate in disregarding basic moral concepts.

The efforts to deprive citizens of the right to vote in this enlighten ed day and time savors of the despotism of the medieval period.

LABOR & HUMAN RELATIONS

President Eisenhower, on August 5th named Rev Archibald J. Carey, Jr., Negro clergyman from Chicago as head of President's Committe e on Government Employment Policy.

NATIONWIDE HOTEL ASSOCIATION

Invites the public to its 3rd annual NHA Fall Festival and Beauty Pageant at Terrace ballroom, Newark, Sunday September 29th, 6 P. M.

Expected to be the most lavish as well as fabulous affair to hit the city, at which time Miss NHA, and seven Regional Queens will be selected. A gala stage show, a Fall Fashion Preview, featuring Belle Meade Models, of N. J., and Grace del Marco models of New York will augment the Festival.

Evening's highlight will be awarding the door prize to lucky guest in the form of All Expense Paid Trip to Hot Springs, Arkansas, as guest of National Baptist Hotel from October 14th through 16th. The public is urged to make early reservations, call Mitchell-3-5148, or write 602 High Street, Newark, N. J. for tickets and table reservations, at once.

CAPT. ROBERT D. TROTT (1), East Orange, Commander, Pvt. Albert Harvey Post #2139, VFW, member St. James AME Church, Newark. One of the "Old Guard" of 372nd Infantry, still going strong in civic, church and community. To the extent that during "Poppy Day" sales, he stood at his post in the broiling heat, almost on verge of collapse, but determined not to give in, until his sales were completed. Physical weariness necessitated hospitalization at East Orange Veterans Hospital.

At this writing he was well on the mend.

AMY FIELDS (2), Newark, President Modern Workers Club, Bethany Chapter #43, O. E. S., PHA Masonic Order, and Overseer of Shelter #4, Order of Antelopes of America, Inc. She anticipates taking a large delegation to 24th Annual Convention of Grand Order of Antelopes, October 14th at Sabbath Day Adventist Church, New York.

Day Adventist Church, New York.

BERENIECE MAXWELL, (3), Orange. Social Elites president, who with members staged a financially successful Annual Garden party, despite inclement weather at Belmar, N. J., summer home of Dr. and Mrs. A. V. Morris. Proper planning insured reports of monetary returns far in advance of the party. The group was thereby enabled to carry through its project of financial sponsorship of two young students to Tennessee State College.

DOROTHEA LEE (4), Newark, President of Club Cicuso, Inc., and employee at Martland Medical Center. With her 15 members continued proof of the club's desire to further community endeavors, has been evidenced. Essex County Urban League was recipient of Cicuso's recent largesse-a student scholarship gift.

President Lilliam Dabney, and her husband Jack made Washington, D.C. (her home), and Columbia Beach, Md where they enjoyed the boat regatta, the scene of their vacation.

In Washington they visited House of Senate and Representatives, go t first hand information and view of the heated debates on Civil Rights Bill. Toured office of Recorder Of Deeds, John C. Duncan, and that of Pete Ridley, 1st Deputy, and life long friend of Mrs Dabney. Visited White House, including the President's conference room, cabinet rooms, office, and suite.

On the gay side they were quests at an all-day beach party, of Atty Ernest C. Dickson. In turn the Dabneys threw a party at their Md. beach residence, wherein many of the bright lights of the social world were present. Returning to Newark, president Lillian Dabney advises all members the first meeting of the season will be held at home of Miss Mary Williams, East Orange.

-IN MEMORIAM-

BETTY A. LIGHTFOOT, not the founder of Pilgrim Baptist church as stated in one of the weeklies, but one of several pioneer Newarkers, who resuscitated the almost defunct and failing church, re-establishing with the now deceased Rev E. E. Ricks as pastor, passed on at age of 80.

Keen business acumen in field of real estate, and dominant activities in Elkdom, will hold her memory enshrined in hearts of Jerseyites. At time of her demise, her husband John H., hospitalized, a host of relatives, three cousins Virginia Taylor, Octavia Armstrong, Lynn Johnson, survive her.

MYRTLE WILLIAMS COBACCHIA, of Belleville, former Newarker, and possibly holding longest term of employment of any Negro in Ne wark City Hall. Surviving are her husband Val, Newark postal employee, Mr s Anna Williams, mother, Miss Helen Williams, sister, and many friends.

GARDENIA MITCHELL, member Nicholas Memorial Church, Newark, and beloved wife of Ben Mitchell, suddenly passed, leaving scores of friends to mourn. Internment was at Sumter, S.C.

LESTER WARREN COLLINS, of Conyers, Ga., after a lingering illness. Mourning his passing are his wife Carol Dye Collins of Ga, three sons, located in Cleveland, Philadelphia and Augusta, Ga., four daughters, among them Bertill Collins Wright of Montclair, others in Seattle, Wash, and Atlanta, Ga.

LUTHER ("Chef")ROBINSON, of Newark, beloved husband of Irene and brother to "Mott", Newark taxi driver. Suddenly from a heart a ilment. His super meals during the years when he operated a restaurant and later, prior to his retirement, at doctor's orders, from head cook in State Institutions and hospitals in the city, earned for him the affectionate title of "Chef."

"SPIDER" WILLIAMS, bright light along the stem; a favorite mixologist of cafe society, rang up the cash register of life suddenly. Scores grieve.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

AS WE SEE IT

CUTBACKS in aircraft production is causing much concern in the nation's economy. However, all is not gloom, for now, as so often in the past, new industries come along to replace obsolete ones, or man made pump-priming has intervened to keep the body economic going. The new stimulant and/or new industry is the vast billion dollar federal road building program now getting under way. Much of the money will be spent for a 41,000 mile network of super highways. Moreover, existing and second a ry highways will also come in for about a billion dollars worth of assistance.

IT IS UNFORTUNATE that the federal school construction program did not pass Congress this session, this would have added additional impetus toward fuller employment. The maintaining of the favorable economy has become increasingly complex. We believe the first step in a prosperous economy, is to "Keep as many people working as possible", for employment begets employment.

CENTRAL NEWARK COMMUNITY COUNCIL, although inactive during the summer, President Lucius H. Tompkins, and elected officers have kept in touch with problems affecting the people of Central Ward, Newark.

Mr Tompkins submitted a letter to Police Director, Joseph B. Sugrue, in which he pointed out the evil effects of the excess number of taverns in the ward. He further requested that Director Sugrue conduct a cleanup of the ward in reference to fights, brawls, use of indecent language, muggings, intimidation and prostitution. Certain basic recommendations were made as to method in which this cleanup could be made more effective.

With consent of the Council's elected officers, the president appeared before Newark City Council, August 21st, urging adoption of a new Housing and Sanitary Code.

Central Newark Community Council resumes regular meetings September; notice of meetings will be announced at a later date, and it is hoped that all members and interested persons will attend.

FASHION

SHADES OF THE FLAPPER ERA!!They tell us knee high skirts will again adorn all us femme fatale. Now ladies, come September, if the gams are too thin, the knees boney—or plump—skip the knee length skirts, and depend on good "ole mother judgment" to hoist or drop your skirt.

PLAIDS RIGHT AND LEFT!! Good news in anybody's fashion book. The campus lass, career girl, dowager, or madame "money-bags." The lovely looking plaid brigade (small patterns and large) will be out in full force in the Fall. Coats, suits, frocks, even the fabulous eve gown, all done up in plaid.

ANCHORS AWAY!! 'Member when you were sweet 16 (o'course we refer to the now present lass of 39, who despite having reached five more years past the 39 mark, still remains 39 or thereabouts). At any rate backin the good ole days when you were the prettiest thing at high school ina MIDDY BLOUSE. You wore 'em to gym, to study class, and walking your best and special girl friend (or was it walking with your best boy-friend) home.

Well get ready for a deluge of middy styled apparel, for sports, for the office, and again done up in evening style. These fashion designers (Lord love 'em) come up with the nicest ideas, sometimes. Middy blouse style d frock, certainly a "blessing in disguise" for the skinny, and even the ohso fat lass (gives body to the too too thin, and heaven bless us, hides the shall we say, bulges of the too too fat.

SO YOU'RE THINKING, what color shall the Fall frock be. Follow good ole "Madame Fashion Decree", and make it black. So you can't wear that color, oh yes you can!! Madame Fashion Decree tells us that black being all the rage this Fall, will be perked up with color accessories. See?

COLLEGE CAMPUS and WITH THE TEACHERS will be resumed in CLUB WORLD'S next issue. Watch for some interesting and new slants with regard to these features. Perhaps it will be the Teacher instructing your child.
